

Kanban board is the most popular agile task management tool. This kanban board has been made by laravel framework.

For making it more useable ajax has been implemented so that all of the action will be done without page loading. For database, MySQL has been used.

A screencast is given below where user will be able to understand the functionality of this kanban board and use this easily and efficiently.

